

Now it's your turn to enjoy white-glove service

A more human resource.™

Exceed your client's expectations with ADP's exclusive service to accountant partners.

What separates you from other accounting professionals? Why do clients retain your services year after year? It's because you've worked hard to earn their trust, even when time and resource constraints made it difficult.

Now you can be on the receiving end of an exceptional client experience; one that will help you build stronger relationships with your clients. ADP delivers a client experience that can help your firm continue to grow and succeed.

Introducing the Accountant Help Desk from ADP Canada.

This premium level service was designed for you and is offered to our accountant partners to help them meet their client needs.

Contact your ADP Sales Representative to learn more about our NEW Accountant Help Desk and let's start growing your business together.

Accountant Help Desk
1-877-959-0037 (8 AM to 5 PM EST)
Canada.Accountants@adp.com

Here's what you can expect when ADP becomes your very own Accountant Business Partner:

- Dedicated service and insightful expertise tailored specifically to the accountant experience
- Full-service options: account changes, tax form related requests and inquiries
- Direct access to experienced, knowledgeable specialists dedicated to building relationships through stellar service
- A full range of options for interacting with our specialists—so your needs, as well as your client's, are effectively met: email, phone, scheduled appointments or regular touch points