

ADP Canada Named One of Canada's Best Employers for 2020

Forbes ranks ADP Canada among top 300 Canadian employers

TORONTO, MARCH 2020: HR Services and technology leader ADP Canada, has recently been named among the Top 300 Canadian Employers for 2020, according to a new ranking released by Forbes magazine.

ADP Canada is one of only nine “business services and supplies” vendors recognized on the list, scoring higher than organizations, more than double its size. This ranking was based on an independent, anonymous survey of 8,000 Canadian workers who were asked, on a scale of zero to 10, how likely they'd be to recommend their employer to others. The final list ranks the 300 employers that received the most recommendations.

“Our Associates have spoken loud and clear,” says Andrea Wynter, Head of People, ADP Canada. “Not only do they spend their days delivering the latest in HR products and services, but are also active in creating and promoting a workplace culture that attracts Canada’s best and brightest talent. This tremendous recognition is just one example of the incredible sense of pride so that so many of my colleagues feel and whose efforts make ADP such a great place to work.”

The Forbes ranking includes 300 employers across 37 industries, ranging from large corporations to community-based financial institutions to universities and government agencies.
