Read what ADP Canadian business clients have to say about recommending ADP, especially during uncertain times, to other businesses:

ADP has significant resources to assist during these exceptional times. I would recommend them.

Jim Paterson, treasurer, Kingsview United Church

For a smaller operation like ours, I would absolutely recommend ADP outsourcing. When you don't have the expertise in-house (which we do not have for Ontario/Canadian payroll), outsourcing is the way to go. I had one fewer thing I needed to worry about. ADP was great when we had to shut down for a time, and great helping me get back up and running again.

Michael Parcels, director, payroll operations and HRMS, DXL Canada Inc.

The biggest positive impact during this time from ADP has been the support from our HR Rep. She was extremely helpful in assisting with leave of absences, policies and government updates, and where I could find the information. Invaluable! I would absolutely recommend ADP outsourcing to companies looking for HR support.

Deanna Dishke, owner, Home Hardware

ADP is worth every penny!

David Jenkins, CFO,
Pronto Solutions Alliance, Inc.

It has been a challenging time for the whole world. ADP has been very helpful and supportive. We are all working from home but ADP's work ethic was outstanding. They assisted in every way they could.

Anjum Shakir, payroll and benefits manager, Wipro Technologies

Overall, ADP has been very beneficial in helping overcome some of the challenges in the face of uncertainty.

Maria Bond, senior payroll and benefits manager, SHL US LLC

ADP has been a great help during this time. I'd tell my peers to certainly look into the process with ADP. Very easy to set up, easy to monitor and use. You can count on ADP to process payrolls with very minimal interruption. They have been very thorough processing our changes during this time. Well done!

Ken Graham, controller, Seabridge Marine Services Ltd.
