

ADP Canada Simplifies Payroll for Small Business Owners with New Mobile-First Solution.

ADP Workforce Now On the GoSM enables small businesses to track employee hours and run payroll at any time, from any device.

October 24, 2019, TORONTO: ADP Canada is enabling small businesses to focus on growing their business, instead of managing payroll and time with the launch of ADP Workforce Now On the Go. The new platform helps small business owners run payroll and manage time on their mobile phone, tablet or desktop.

“My needs are simple; I have 10 employees working in store and in our kitchens. ADP Workforce Now On the Go allows me to easily track my employees’ time and offers a simple and straightforward payroll process,” says Mark Miller, owner of the Marcaron Boutique in Toronto. “My experience has been great, and the app is very intuitive and easy to use.”

Leveraging ADP Workforce Now[®], ADP’s award winning HCM platform, ADP Workforce Now On the Go also enables business owners to generate key insights into earnings, deductions and taxable benefits to verify payroll. Employee hours and payroll data at both the company and employee level can also be viewed using the solution’s summary dashboard.

“Small business owners have a lot on their plate. They’re responsible for every aspect of their business,” says Holger Kormann, President, ADP Canada, “With ADP Workforce Now On the Go, businesses can simplify payroll and track employee hours quickly and on any device. It’s a perfect tool for those who aren’t payroll experts.”
